Ms. Jean Strickland
c/o Jackson County
Geological Society
P. O. Box 984
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39567

Dear Ms. Strickland:

You have been referred to me as someone who can assist me in filling in some gaps in the geological research that I am doing on my great great grandfather, Samuel D. Apperson. I have already visited the Jackson County Library and have obtained some information during my short visit. As a base of background, Samuel D. Apperson was born in Autauga County, Alabama, in approximately 1841 and after the Civil War took a job with the railroad and lived at various times in Mobile, Alabama and Scranton, Mississippi and New Orleans, Louisiana. I am enclosing copies of the city directories from these cities that trace his location over the years. Of interest to me is the period of time that he spent at Scranton. Specifically, he is listed in the 1880 census as living with his wife Harriet Elizabeth and his two children John and Edna Sarah. In 1878 one of his children died and his death was reported in the local newspaper, copy attached. He subsequently moved to New Orleans and lived there during the period of 1882-1883. He may have moved back to Scranton or Mobile, but ultimately died in New Orleans. His widow subsequently remarried in 1886.

I would appreciate your reviewing the attached information and any help you can give filling in any of the gaps as they relate to the time that he lived in Jackson County would be appreciated. Please bill me for whatever time is necessary and I will be glad to forward my check to you. If you have any questions or need further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me at (504) 838-8177 evenings or (504) 364-2767 days. I hope that the information enclosed is not too sketchy, but does allow you to uncover additional information. To my knowledge, only two of his children lived but I am not totally certain of that. I understand that he may have owned property in either Scranton or Moss Point but that is only hearsay.

parts. "Dead Alive" was quite laughable and created considerable amusement. The "Banjo Lesson" was loudly applauded, and would have done credit to older performers. The "Sermon," by Mr. W. A. Hensler, was so ridiculously absurd--"just like a fool nigger"--that it brought round after round of applause. Owing to rather an amusing circumstance--the coming loose of the old preacher's pants--loons--we think the sermon was cut short; though it did well. The "Ghost" was very laughable, and was acted quite well; in fact, was fully up to anything on the programme. The entertainment concluded with "Barnum's Ball," and from the manner in which the door-keeper took in tickets and divided them up in lieu of the "squibblings," that performance was not a financial success to "Mr. Barnum," the manager, though the audience enjoyed the act exceedingly.

The refreshments down stairs were all that could have been desired. Everything was sold for a reasonable price, and the ladies and gentlemen in charge were as accommodating and polite as one need wish to see.

The total amount of receipts were $196 88, expenses, $69 44, leaving a net sum of $127 44, which amount was forwarded to Port Gibson for the relief of soldiers' sufferers. We consider this very good indeed for one night's entertainment at this place.

THANKS.

To Dr. O. Chidney, the veteran stage manager, the Historian of de-fasting and prayer, is a poor response to the general demand for him to exercise his power and influence for the relief of a suffering people who should not need outside aid, and do not wish to be humiliated by having to accept it.

So far as prayers go, they are ascending at noon, noon and night from every household, and will not be the more fervent because offered in accordance with executive schedule, but the people are painfully aware of the fact that God works through natural agencies, and helps those most who help themselves, and they cannot understand why the governor refuses to accede to a general demand and use the public resources for the public good.

Quarantine Against Vessels from Louisiana.

Washington, Sept. 23.--The U. S. consul at Lisbon notifies the state department that all vessels from New Orleans are subject to a rigorous quarantine of eight days, on arrival at any of the ports of Portugal.

From other points in Louisiana, three to five days quarantine of observation.

OBITUARY.

APPELSON--At Seranton, Miss, September 17, 1878, RICHARD, youngest son of S. D. and H. E. Appelsson, aged 4 years. Tenderly, tenderly lay him to rest. Fold down the snowy hands over the still brow.

Sleepeth he sweetly the sleep of the blessed. Dickie, our darling.

Tenderly, tenderly lay him to rest, On the still lips our last kiss has been pressed.

Dwelleth he now in the land of the blessed. Dickie, our darling.

THOMAS--At Port Byron, near Ocean Springs, Sept. 14, 1878, Mr. T. Thomas in the 74th year of his age.

Another week--an empty chair in the household--another grave in the old churchyard--another pain added to the broken hearts--another loss to tread life's thorny path. But another added to the roll of the "lost" chosen. Yes, 'tis true the union of years here has ended, only for the short space of time, and when the great and lasting union has taken place. He has gone where the shadow of death creeps not, leaving behind all dark despair to the loving and parentless ones, who will miss sadly the kind and aged paternal hand.

"Gone! you, gone! through the narrow gates, With the millions gone before, Where bright-winged angels stand and wait, And sing, 'There's room for more.' " Yes, children of sorrow, there's room for you beside the loving ones in the Golden City, where all is joy and sweet repose.

OLIVIER--Of diphtheria, at Pascagoula, Miss., Thursday morning, September 26, 1878, BRUNNIE MAIZE, eldest daughter of Victor and Louise, Olivier, of New Orleans, aged nine years and ten months. Death, was a bright and joyous child, beloved by all who knew her, and in her death this bereaved family have lost one of their brightest gems. Death under any circumstances is sad, but the saddest in this case is that which is as Mr. Olivier was in New Orleans at the time, and could not be at the bedside of his dying child owing to quarantine restrictions. The bereaved family have our warmest sympathy in their sorrow.

By private dispatch we learn there were seven new cases of fever and no deaths at Bay St. Louis on Wednesday last.

The opening of the next session of Mississippi college, at Clinton, has been postponed until October 23.

The latest New Orleans Times can be found every day at the postoffice, which are kept on sale by Mr. Sam Alley.

Our section has been blessed with several copious rain showers during the week, which has benefited vegetation very much.

Business among the shipyards seems to be good. There are two schooners on the ways at Pol & Freutz, a barge at Smith's, and a schooner at Irving's.

Rev. J. W. Bingham will preach at Seranton academy next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and also immediately after dismissal of Sunday-school in the afternoon.

Next Monday night there will be an ice cream sociable at the residence of Mrs. M. C. Dees. The proceeds are to be devoted toward building a Baptist church at this place. All are invited to attend.

We print and have for sale all kinds of shipping manifests, such as outward foreign, shippers manifests, etc. We will furnish merchants in quantities to suit at prices that defy competition. Call and examine our work.

The two Havana lottery tickets donated by Mr. Selma and sold at the District's entertainment on Thursday of last week, brought the sum of $14 30. Capt. Loring and Mrs. Martin were the winners of the tickets.

Dr. Chidney has moved into his new drug store opposite this office, where he will be pleased to see his old friends and customers, and as many new ones as possible. The doctor now has a very eligible and convenient establishment.

Last Tuesday night a temperance society was organized at the Seashore. They have not entirely perfected the organization, but will do so next Tuesday night. All who favor this good cause are invited to attend the next meeting and assist in this commendable work.

Writing us from Handsboro under date of last Wednesday, Col. Mayers says: "Ten or more cases of yellow fever, are reported by good authority at the Barnes hotel, Mississippi City, this evening, and one death--a child of Mr. Rowland's family. Nurses have arrived from New Orleans and are doing all in their power to relieve the stricken people." Dr. Lyon, of Handsboro, acknowledges that he has cases and that Dr. Geo. N. Smith of Pascagoula, is treating the balance.

to the 20th. At Bay St. Louis new cases during the last week deaths reported.

Our end of the street is proving. Dr. Chidney's new store is now open opposite us, in a few days C. M. Cruzat have his new storehouse going just below this office and on opposite side of the street; then there is the new courthouse just a little above us and on same street. Delmas avenue going to be the street of our city.

Wednesday last Miss A. good, who lives with her brother James on the river, about two and a half miles above West Pascagoula, met with a serious accident. Mr. Osgood was drawing coal in a pit, and in throwing out a bar which weighed about two pounds she was accidentally struck on the side of the head, cutting ugly gash. Though the wound quite severe it is not considered dangerous.

The entertainment given to the good people of Moss Point, Live Oak academy last Wednesday night, for the benefit of fever sufferers, was, we learn, decidedly one of the most successful performances, financially and otherwise ever given in this county, and reflects great credit on the citizens of Moss Point. The gross receipts amounted to nearly $300. We will notice the entertainment at length in our next issue.

Demorest's ladies' magazine for October has been received. This number is very full and interesting and every lady in the land should subscribe for this superb magazine of fashions. There are two chromatic pictures, besides the steel engravings, in this issue, which will be sure to please all who see them. The subscription price of Demorest's is $3, and each subscriber gets a premium worth that amount. Address W. J. Demorest, New York City.

Mr. C. H. Withers has just completed a neat and large storehouse for Mr. A. W. Ramsay, on Bluff creek. Mr. Ramsay intends laying in a full and complete stock of groceries, dry goods and general country supplies as soon as the quarantine is raised and he can get to the city. The merchants at the head of Bluff creek are doing a good business and seem to be getting along very well considering the dull times. We are informed that the citizens in that locality are supporters of the quarantine laws and are in no way trying to violate its provisions. This statement is due our citizens in that section, inasmuch as a report had gained currency that they were running the blockade and thus violating the laws, and we are glad to be enabled to contradict these reports.
